

2018 Spring Seminar and AGM

Date: 10th February

Time: 10:30 – 16:00

Where: Wendover Memorial Hall, Warf Road,
HP22 6HF

Cost: £15, includes Ploughman's Lunch

Buy Tickets on line here.

Speakers:

Professor Steve Martin, Chair in Entomology Salford University, will be giving a presentation on Deformed Wing Virus. Steve has studied honey bees all over the world and has recently published a book titled The Asian Hornet.

Keith Pierce, County Dublin Beekeepers Association, will be talking about maintain strong colonies throughout the season. Keith has been beekeeping for over 25 years, selectively rearing queens of the Dark Native Irish Bee, Apis mellifera mellifera.

Mark Patterson, Forage Officer: London Beekeeper's Association, will be talking about Nutritional and forage needs of the colony. Mark is the Beekeeper and Community Manager with national environmental charity Groundwork.

Stalls:

Secondhand Beekeeping Equipment, Northern Bee Books,
Bees Abroad, Bumblebee Conservation